WHO IS...

de Kraan

The Profile - The Legacy

A QUEST FOR PASSION TO MASTER
THE MEANING OF EXPRESSION

A stylized, colorful profile of a woman's head and shoulders, facing right. The hair is rendered in vibrant, wavy bands of yellow, red, blue, and green. The face is pink, and the neck and shoulders are also in shades of pink and purple. The style is reminiscent of mid-century modern graphic art.

Born in Amsterdam, Philippe de Kraan is a controversial, yet intriguing artist, an enigma to many, who insists that his diverse art works from Impressionism to Expressionism, do speak an unique language to all who have seen them throughout an already incredible career of 46 solo art exhibitions across Europe and Australia (where he resides today).

Unfortunately from 1997 - 2004 following a traumatic period in his life, de Kraan lost sight of his vision and withdrew from the art world. His renewed inspiration came after a tragic loss in 2004, which propelled him once again into the magic of his art.

Philippe de Kraan has emerged now with a new, unique collection and is ready to share these visionary works with the world. Guided by inspiration, de Kraan not only intends to present his new collection to the Australian public, but also to extend further a field, with a main focus of New York City, California USA and thereafter, into Shanghai, China.

His imaginary character studies are once again de Kraan's subject matter, coming to life from the depths of his subconscious and carried along through his intense emotional energy to produce his own unique form of 'Expressionism'. Additionally, his deep Dutch home connection with the great artists of all time, Rembrandt and Vincent Van Gogh, continue to influence his work and bring to his collection, a stamp of brilliance and insight.

In closing de Kraan would like to say and I quote:

"We are imprisoned by our sameness to all men but liberated by our uniqueness"
